JEN, CHARLES K. See BASIC ENGLISH.

JEN, PETER SKENE. See OGDEN.

OGIER THE DANE, OH jih er, was a hero of several French romantic poems of the Middle Ages. The poems tell how he earned his knighthood in Charlemagne's war against the Saracens in Italy. Later, Charlemagne's son killed Ogier's son, and Ogier revolted against Charlemagne. He was imprisoned, but was set free when a Saracen army attacked France. Ogier killed the Saracen leader and saved France. ARTHUR M. SELVI

OGLETHORPE, JAMES EDWARD (1696-1785), an Englishman, was the founder and first governor of the colony of Georgia.

He was born in London and attended Eton and Oxford. He joined the British Army at 14. He was elected to Parliament in 1722. Here, he became interested in persons who had been imprisoned for not paying their debts. Oglethorpe hoped to help them by establishing an American colony for debtors. In 1733, he went to Georgia.
